

RESOLUTION 2002 - 2

PROCLAIMING APRIL 7-13, 2002 AS INTERNATIONAL BUILDING SAFETY WEEK

WHEREAS, the safety of the buildings we occupy daily is essential to the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of the world; and

WHEREAS, among the world's most fundamental laws are those providing safety standards for the construction of buildings in which people live, work, and play; and

WHEREAS, the City of Mason enforces construction codes to be effective and understanding. Cooperation must exist between code officials and the people they serve both now and in the future; and

WHEREAS, through the efforts of code officials worldwide, and their cooperative relationship with the construction industry, the administration of these health and life-safety standards is assured; and

WHEREAS, units of government across the world, along with such prestigious organizations as Building Officials & Code Administrators International, Inc., International Code Council, International Conference of Building Officials, Southern Building Code Congress International, Inc., the National Conference of States on Building Codes and Standards (NCSBCS), and the World Organization of Building Officials (WOBO) are joining to promote the use of building and construction codes today, through the observation of International Building Safety Week; and

WHEREAS, the theme of International Building Safety Week 2002 has been established as "Setting the Standard for Building Safety."

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Council of the City of Mason, Ohio, members elected thereto concurring:

Section 1. That the Council of the City of Mason, Ohio, hereby designates and proclaims the week of April 7-13, 2002 as International Building Safety Week in the City of Mason, Ohio.

Section 2. That all citizens are urged to recognize the contributions of engineering and building employees and International Building Safety Week to help promote building safety, to create awareness as to the importance of construction and building codes, and to spotlight the role of the dedicated code official in administering those codes.

Section 3. That this Resolution shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

Passed this 25th day of March, 2002.
