Purple Heart Memorial Stone Program

The City of Mason offers an opportunity to honor Purple Heart recipients who currently reside in Mason, resided in Mason during their military service and call Mason their hometown, or are an immediate family member of a current Mason resident. Please complete the information on Section 4 on the back page to participate in the Purple Heart Memorial Stone program.

Gold Star Family Memorial Stone Program

The Gold Star Family Memorial Stone Program provides the opportunity to honor those fallen soldiers that made the ultimate sacrifice. The program is reserved for fallen soldiers that resided in Mason during their military service and called Mason their hometown, or are an immediate family member of a current Mason resident. Please complete the information on section 5 on the back page to participate in the Gold Star Family Memorial Stone Program.

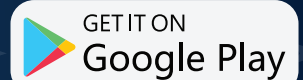

Commemorative Brick Program

Commemorative bricks are available to any individual regardless of residency or service to the military. Bricks that memorialize an active military member or veteran have a dedicated area within the Mason Veterans Memorial. Non-veteran commemorative bricks are part of the walkway leading up to the Veterans Memorial and are a thoughtful way for non-military community members to showcase their patriotism or leave a family legacy within the Veterans Memorial. Please complete the information on Section 2 on the back page to participate in the commemorative brick program.

Download the Mason Veterans Memorial App

Please visit the app store on your phone, iPad or tablet to download the app and find the location of your commemorative brick within the Mason Veterans Memorial.

Military Banner and Yard Sign Program
